

Your name (optional):

Today's date:

1. Name of the interview you watched:
2. If there was a particular section of this interview that you found especially compelling, please describe this section, and if you're watching the videorecording, please tell us what minute the section begins and when it ends:
3. Why did you find this section of the interview interesting or important or meaningful?
4. What ethical issues does this interview raise for you?
5. Do you think that showing this video selection would serve any educational purpose, or that it could start a constructive conversation? How so? What would you hope showing this video could accomplish?
6. Thinking broadly, to what group(s) or audience(s) can you imagine showing this video selection?
7. Are there terms in this video selection for which we should provide a definition or annotations?
8. Do you have any other comments or suggestions for us?

Return your comments to info@texasafterviolence.org

Thank you so much for your help!!